

i3S Fundraising Cancer Short-term fellowship by Quinta do Estanho

1. Scope

The i3S Fundraising team awards a Short-term Fellowship, sponsored by Quinta do Estanho, for i3S researchers working in the field of Cancer. This grant aims to cover travel and/or accommodation expenses in short-stay (of up to 3 months) visits to institutions abroad, particularly to promote scientific collaboration, advanced training and to apply new techniques or methodologies that are unavailable in the applicant's laboratory.

2. Eligibility

Applicants must be i3S members, PhD students or PhDs.

3. Coverage

Visits to international institutions and research groups, namely with expertise in a particular methodology or technology of interest for both the candidate and the i3S community. The maximum covered value is 1700 €.

4. Deadlines

Applications will be open from 15th September to 15th October 2019.

The Fellowship will be awarded to support exchanges that will take place during the year of 2020. If the person fails to secure the visit until the end of this period, he/she must notify the organization and the grant will be attributed to the candidate ranking 2nd place.

5. Evaluation of the applications

The applications will be evaluated individually by the jury considering the following parameters:
